

Krishna Chande is an Adjunct Assistant Professor in the department of life skills, NMIMS. She has graduated with Psychology Majors and holds a post-graduate degree in Organizational Psychology along with an Advanced Diploma in Counselling Psychology. She has 13 plus years of experience in the field as an educator, well-being counsellor and a trainer.

She has previously worked at Accenture in project management operations. She has worked as a consultant on several organizational development and human resource management projects.

She has also worked with Podar International School, Jamnabai Narsee International School, Indira Gandhi National Open University where she taught psychology and guided many students on their research projects.

She has trained at managerial level for Indian fortune 500 conglomerate in petroleum refining, German multinational Fortune 500 conglomerate in industrial machinery and Fortune India 500 in automotive industry.

She has trained students, staff and faculty at many well-known educational institutes and universities. She has been recognized and appreciated in various capacities by corporates and educational institutes alike. She was felicitated at the hands of Dr. K. M Kulkarni, former director of Higher education, Maharashtra Govt. and also by Education Times & National Institute of Event Management. She was also recognised for her exemplary contribution in teaching at NMIMS (Shirpur)

She is currently the faculty mentor for 'Chitrarth' - The Film Society and 'The White Hats' at Mukesh Patel School of Technology Management & Engineering (Mumbai)