An event full of happiness, laughter, and joy. Not only did students from across SVKM Institutes participate but we also saw participation from the faculty. The food, mini game stalls, the photo booth, every little thing, every little moment played a huge role in creating memories for each one of us. The entire fiesta was no less than an indelible turnout. The entire event exuded a sense of togetherness. Wherever your eyes went, you could see everyone being as supportive as possible to complete strangers. It didn't matter who the participant was, what the mini game was. As long as there was someone participating, there would be loud cheers and words of support. The entire point of sports is to unite people even during the most difficult of times. Sports helps people forget about real life altercations just for a game of football, cricket, athletics, etc. Hence, the entire point of organizing a sports fest is to bring people together with the help of sports. The Fiesta captures this essence of togetherness and unity. The Fiesta at a local but significant level brought thousands of people together to participate in simple mini-games, relishing delicious food, taking some incredible polaroid's or just enjoying the lively atmosphere. Overall, the Fiesta represented an important message about the capabilities of the organizers in general wherein they are perfectly capable of bringing thousands of people together given the chance.

For the first time ever, Nepathya organized Garba Night in the first week of October. It was a cultural evening of dandiya raas and garba in pursuit of a refreshing break to students to celebrate the festive period of Navratri along with some fun games and DJ night. The event was a huge success as we saw a huge footfall of students who grooved in their best ethnic attires accompanied by their friends and enjoyed the mouth-watering delicacies. We also collaborated with Verve (fashion club, NMIMS) who gave best dressed awards to students and an opportunity to be featured on their page.

Students Participated: B.Sc. (Economics) and M.Sc. (Economics)

Enclosed Document:

1. Report of the event
2. Photographs

Objectives of the event:

Showcasing the various talents of the students on the stage

The theme for cultural day had its core idea in celebrating the journey of the Junoon members and emphasised on showcasing the various talents we have nurtured throughout the year on the stage. The Drama was based around a whimsical concept where famous characters from movies, fairytales and tv series all come to life and end up exploring various places in Mumbai. In various parts of the play, Music performances and dances were incorporated that were both performed by Junoon and Non-Junoon members. All props, background settings, presentations, lighting and sound was handled by a backstage team. The main event ended with a finale performance for music and dance followed by a core dance

The welcome address and vote of thanks was delivered by the President and Vice-President of Junoon and the audience included the Dr. Amita Vaidya- Dean, Sarla Anil Modi School of Economics, various faculty members, administration and the students of BSc. & MSc. Economics.

1. Report of the event
2. Photographs

Objectives of the event:

- To showcase and celebrate the diverse cultures and traditions represented within the college community.
- To provide a platform for students to exhibit their talents in various art forms such as music, dance, drama, and visual arts.

Urjja began with a energetic introduction by the hosts for the day. Crescendo - the instrumental competition, gave a musical beginning to the day followed by Raise the Mic – solo and duet, which was the singing competition. Act Attack - the skit performance then was Footloose – the solo, duet and group dance competition. The events of the day ended with Panache - the fashion show. All the events for Urjja were brought to us by the Performing Arts Department of Isthmus Urjja. Worthy and notable persons from their respective industries were invited as judges for all the events. The effort, dedication and commitment for the entire year by the entire Isthmus Urjja Committee came to fulfillment at the end. It resulted into a series of days' worth remembering and cherishing.
